

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates. The cable ownership cap is a crucial element of our democratic media, and it should not be weakened.

It is frightening how many steps are being taken to convert our democracy to a dictatorship. We can not afford to make the same mistakes that Germany made in the thirties. There is too much at stake.
